

How to install the client – FILE Deployment Version:

Note: Make sure that the user account must have admin rights to install client

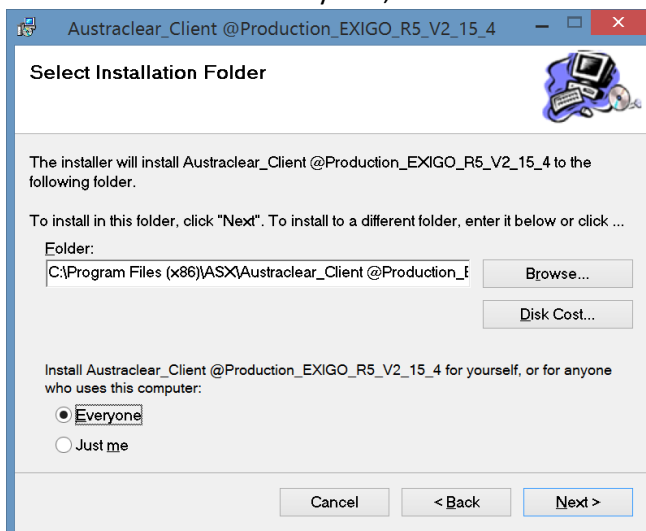

Once you have the copy of File Deployment GUI in zip, unzip the file. Please note that the zip file is password protected, to obtain the password, please contact our Austraclear Helpdesk by ringing 1300 362 257.

Double click msi EXIGOCSDInstaller_2.15.4_Prod.msi

a) Click next

b) Choose radio button 'Everyone', then click next

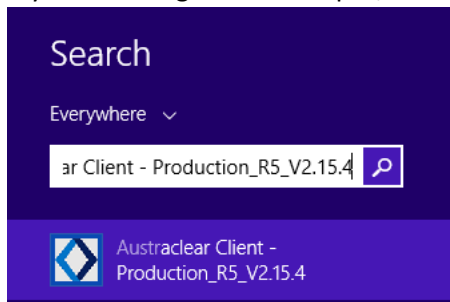

c) Confirm the installation by clicking Next

How to test the new client after the install

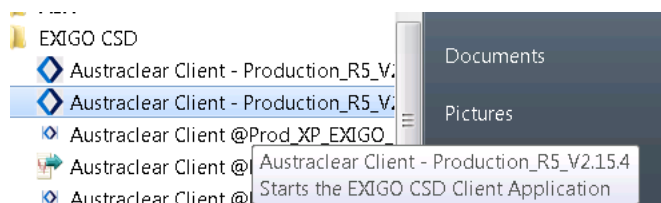

a)

If you are using Windows 8 pro, search Austraclear Client Prod_R5_v2.15.4

Click the icon

If you are using Windows 7, from the start button All programs->EXIGO CSD
Choose Austraclear Client – production R5__V2.15.4

- b) You will be presented by GUI log on page
- Make sure that the version is 2.15.4 and It shows ASX Austraclear Production
  - Enter your production Austraclear user account and password and the valid digital certificate.

- c) During your testing, prior to go-live, you will be presented by this error message during login. This means that the version you are using is not yet live. You will be fully logon using this version after go-live date.

